

Cable Detector PCE-191 CB

PCE-191 CB is a handheld, portable wire tracer, cable detector or cable fault meter used for locating wires and cables hidden behind walls and insulation. Comprised of a signal transmitter and receiver, this easy-to-use cable locating device emits an acoustic alarm.

- ▶ Detects live cables and wires (it is not necessary to remove the fuse)
- ▶ Compact design
- ▶ CE, IEC / EN 61010-1:01 safety ratings

Subject to change

Specifications

Technical specifications

Detection method Acoustic signal

Power range 220 to 240 V AC

Frequency range 50 / 60 Hz

Power supply Transmitter: Electric power
Receiver: 9 V battery

Weight 300 g / 0.67 lb

More information

Manual

More product info

Similar products

Subject to change